

Alton Thompson

June 14, 1919 – February 25, 2004

(From Findagrave.com)

Alton Thompson, 84, passed away Wednesday, Feb. 25, 2004, at Charleston Area Medical Center.

Born June 14, 1919, at Summers County, he was the son of the late Nelson and Ella Harvey Thompson.

Mr. Thompson was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church. He was a Navy veteran of World War II, a farmer in Monroe, Greenbrier, and Pocahontas counties, and the owner and operator of Thompson's Market, Maxwelton.

Survivors include: his wife of 60 years, Blanche Maddy Thompson; three daughters, Sandra Woods and husband, Rodney, of Burlington, KY, Lou Ella Lewis and husband, Chuck, of Lewisburg, and Ruth Warren and husband, Sam, of Frankford; son, Eddie Thompson and wife, Sue, of Salem, VA; sister, Martina Williams and husband, Hubert, of Nimitz; brothers, Ronald Thompson and wife, Virginia, of Sandyville, and Bill Thompson and wife, Estelle, of Nimitz; eight grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

Graveside services will be held Saturday, Feb. 28, at 10 a.m. at New Hope Methodist Cemetery, near Marie.

Services will also be held Saturday, at noon at Calvary Baptist Church, with the Rev. Jonathan Comer and the Rev. Hayden Skip Furrow officiating.

In lieu of flowers, donations of sympathy may be sent to: Calvary Baptist Church, 113 Montvue Drive, P.O. Box 53, Lewisburg, WV 24901, or to a charity of one's choice.

Wallace & Wallace Funeral Home, Lewisburg, are in charge of the arrangements.