Betty Sue Lively Revels Doffermyer died March 3, 2007 in San Antonio, TX after a long illness.

Born on Aug 1, 1941 in Hinton, VW to Jonas Gilman and Mary Sherwood Lively.

Betty Sue was predeceased in death by her first husband, Eli Revels, her second husband, William Doffermyer, and her step-daughter, Tracy Doffermyer Sanfranski.

She is survived by her sister, Mary Lively Rogers, of San Antonio, and one niece and one nephew.

Betty Sue enjoyed a long civil service career following her employment with the US Army. She was an enthusiastic NALF member who looked forward to the annual reunion each year and enjoyed reading the newsletters and genealogical books.

A memorial service was observed in San Antonio at Madison Estates on March 10, and interment was held on March 14 at historic Fairfax City Cemetery in Fairfax, VA following a service at Everly Funeral Home.

Betty Sue was honored with a Gaelic farewell and the Lord's Prayer performed by a soloist from the US Army Chorus.
