April 9, 1916 – November 2, 1997

(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

John L. "Scottie" Scott Sr., age 81, of Shalimar, Fla., passed away Sunday, Nov. 2, 1997, in Fort Walton Beach Medical Center with his family at his side. His passage was peaceful.

Mr. Scott was born in Hinton, W.Va., on April 9, 1916, to Claude and Lille Scott. He married Marguerite Anderson in 1940. He served in the European Theatre in the U.S. Army's 29th Infantry Division that fought its way into Germany. He had been a resident of the Fort Walton Beach, Fla., area since 1955.

He retired from Hurlburt Field, Fla., as a missile technician with the 4251st ADM Squadron after 25 years of service. He was an avid golfer and sports fisherman and a good family man.

Mr. Scott was preceded in death by his wife, Marguerite Scott, in 1989 and is survived by his sons and daughters-in-law, Larry and Beverly Scott of Destin, Fla., Charles and Sallie Scott of Fort Walton Beach, Steve and Teri Scott of Navarre, Fla., and Mike and Pamela Scott of Seneca, S.C.; special friend and companion, Mrs. Barbara Hunter of Shalimar; seven grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Friday, Nov. 21, at Emerald Coast Funeral Home Chapel.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions be made to the building fund of St. Simon's Episcopal Church, 28 Miracle Strip Parkway, Fort Walton Beach, FL 32548.
