

Marjorie Lilly Anderson

March 22, 1926 – November 29, 2003

(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

Marjorie Lilly Anderson, age 77, of Route 1, Marlinton, died Friday, November 29, 2003, at The Brier Rehabilitation and Nursing Center, Ronceverte, after an extended illness.

She was born in Hinton March 22, 1926, the daughter of the late C.J. and Nell Eskridge Lilly.

Her husband, Clyde W. Anderson, sister, Carol Lilly Smith, and brothers, Zane Lilly, Cyril Lilly, and Don Lilly, predeceased her.

Her son, Michael L. Anderson, of Morgantown, sister, Orpha Hazel Wood of Hinton, and brothers, Lowell Lilly of Washington, D.C., Phillip Lilly of Hinton, and Jim Lilly of Florida, survive her.

Marjorie was a graduate of the Davis and Elkins School of Nursing and served in the United States Nurse Cadet Corps, and obtained a Degree of Regents Bachelor's Degree in 1979. She was a nurse for many years at Pocahontas Memorial Hospital, Denmar State Hospital, State of West Virginia Health Facilities Licensure and Certification Survey Team, and was very active in the Habitat for Humanity program. She will be remembered, along with her husband, as the founder and owner, until 1987, of Pocahontas Continuous Care Center.

She was a member of the Marlinton Presbyterian Church.

The Reverend Betty Shields held services on Monday at VanReenen Funeral Home, with interment at Mountain View Cemetery.