Leta Jackson Morrow

At her request, no services will be held for Leta Jackson Morrow M.D., a pioneer Sacramento woman physician, who died Thursday in a local hospital.

Dr. Morrow came to Sacramento in 1935 after serving an internship at the Los Angeles County Hospital. She served on the staff of several Sacramento hospitals and was a board member for the Arden Convalescent Hospital and the Sacramento Community Hospital. She retired from her medical practice in 1978.

Dr. Morrow was a native of West Virginia and received her medical degree from Ohio State University. She was an active member of the Sacramento Soroptimist Club.

Dr. Morrow is survived by her husband, Pat; a daughter, Marian Jackson Pollock of San Ramon; and two grandsons.

The family requests that any remembrances be made to the Sacramento Soroptimist Club Scholarship Fund, P.O. Box 184, Sacramento 95801.
