

Hubert Frederick Smales

January 19, 1923 – June 15, 1988

(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

Hubert Frederick Smales, 55, died of hyper thermia on June 15, 1988 in Alexandria, VA.

Born at Hinton January 19, 1923, he was the son of the late Henry Lawrence and Ida Pearl Tigrett Smales.

He was a graduate of Hinton High School, Class of 1940 and attended the National Art School in Washington, D.C. In 1941 his art was featured in a series titled “Flying Aces” in the Washington Post and received high praise. He was employed as a commercial artist with the Washington Post at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Deaton Smales.

Hubert was laid to rest in the Northern Virginia Cemetery, Arlington, VA.