(From Ancestry and Findagrave.com)

Frances Bragg Lanham, 86, of Scott Depot, passed away on Wednesday, September 7, 2011 at Hubbard Hospice House after a prolong illness of Alzheimer.

Frances worked as a Real Estate Agent with ERA Realty in Teays Valley. She was a member of Darlington Methodist Church.

She enjoyed crafting, gardening, but her passion was the outdoors. She loved nature. Frances was born in Hinton, WV, and moved to Charleston to attend secretarial school after graduation.

Preceding her in death was her husband, Keith Rae Lanham; parents, Homer and Pearl Bragg, three sisters, Pauline, Maycle, Juanita, one grandson, Eric Burdette.

She is survived by her daughter, Sherrie Burdette, of South Charleston, WV; son, Craig Lanham of Beckley, WV, and two grandchildren whom she adored very much, Lee Burdette and Stephanie Lanham.

Memorial Service will be held 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, Sept., 14 at St. Timothys Lutheran Church, Charleston, WV with The Rev. Richard G. Mahan officiating.

Frances donated her body to the West Virginia Human Gift Registry, Morgantown, to help further the study of medical science.

Frances was a wonderful person who lived life to the fullest, and she always put her family first. She will be sadly missed by all her loved her.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be sent to: 1606 Kanawha Blvd, West, Charleston, WV 25387.
